Disclaimer:

- Cancellations have to be made by March 15th. No refunds will be given after that date unless we can sell the packages of bees to someone else.
- The delivery date may change due to weather on delivery route. While this is unlikely, it has happened before. If the date changes it may be short notice. Check the blog to make sure the bees have arrived before driving to pick up.
- When the bees arrive they must be picked up the designated pick up day and on the pick-up schedule which will be posted on the blog.
- Always wear protective clothing, gloves, veil, and use a smoker when near or working the bees. No bee suit is sting proof.
- It is the responsibility of the beekeeper to watch for aggressive behavior of the bees. If the bees are aggressive, they must be re-queened immediately.
- Bees should not be located on small residential lots near people or animals.
- Package bee cages: there will no longer be a cage deposit or cage exchange. You will own the cage. We no longer take back cages.
